

Marriage Vows

Addressing the groom

_____, will you have _____ to be your wife, to live with her according to God's Word in the holy relationship of marriage? Will you love her, comfort her, honor her, and care for her in sickness and in healthy; and forsaking all others, will you be faithful to her, as long as you both shall live?

Addressing the bride

_____, will you have _____ to be your husband, to live with him according to God's Word in the holy relationship of marriage? Will you love him, comfort him, honor him, and care for him in sickness and in healthy; and forsaking all others, will you be faithful to him, as long as you both shall live?

Addressing the groom

I _____, take you, _____, to be my wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and cherish, until death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance; and in these I promise to be faithful to you.

Addressing the bride

I _____, take you, _____, to be my husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and cherish, until death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance; and in these I promise to be faithful to you.

_____ & _____ you have spoken the vows of marriage to each other before God and these witnesses, and you have pledged your faithfulness to each other by joining hands and exchanging rings. I therefore, pronounce that you are husband and wife. What God has joined together, let no one separate!
