

Patience in the Gospel

"On Mount Horeb Elijah was taught that he must wait patiently for the gentle whisper of the gospel to enter the hearts of men and do its blessed work - a truth that men in the church, impatient with her embattled state and her slow growth, must learn again and again." - Franzmann